EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with James Miner (40,444) on 09/26/08.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 13, please add the following line after "time;" in line 8 and before "incorporating" in line 9 --performing processing to ensure that the structure of the retrieved content has retained integrity;--.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-7 and 9-21 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reasons for allowance is the inclusion of the following limitations in the independent claims directed towards the incorporation of content into a web page:

" comparing a structure of the retrieved content to the stored structure;

incorporating the retrieved content on the web page, utilizing a nested web page, only if the structure of the retrieved content matches the stored structure; and trapping a request for the at least one proscribed URL and redirected the request to the corresponding alternative URL if the at least one proscribed URL is selected.” (as from claim 1, similar limitations in claims 13, 19 and 21) and “ incorporating the retrieved different content on the web page by utilizing a nested web page only if the structure of the retrieved different content matches the stored structure: and wherein if the structure of the retrieved different content does not match the stored structure, the method further comprising performing an action in response to the difference, where the action is pre-selected by the user through the user interface, and the user interface includes a choice of actions including:

generating a new window; and displaying the retrieved different content in a new window.”

(as from claim 7)

This subject matter is not found in the prior art, nor is it obvious in view of the prior art.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Further Comments

5. The rejection of claims 13-18 under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, is withdrawn. Upon further review of the specification, pages 13-14, paragraphs 41-43, provide sufficient description in clarifying the meaning of "retaining integrity".
